

Saving a document on WCL's Internet workstations

Washington County Internet workstations automatically shut down after an hour (60 minutes) of use. Once the computer shuts down, all work done during that session and even those documents saved to the C-drive are erased. To avoid losing your documents you should save your work on either a floppy, CD or a USB storage device. Floppies and CDs are sold at the front desk.

WCL: PC helps_1/07