

WASHINGTON COUNTY CITIZEN REVIEW PANEL

MINUTES

03-15-2011

Members present: Aine Bebeau, Melissa Rones, Rick Backman, Marty Gerkey, Guy Sederskey, Jan Snell

Absent: Don Pelton, Anita Keyes, Maggie Hart, Sue Lewis

Visitors: Paige Bebeau, David Wahlquist

1. Approval of minutes: Guy approved, Aine seconded

2. Update from Washington County (Rick):

There is a new name for the Washington County parent and child connection (It had been called Washington County Child Abuse Prevention Council in the past.)

Rick dropped off 90 flyers at the Washington County Library. Rick will also drop some off at the service centers.

Budget is grim. It could be September before there is a final resolution. Expect budget cuts.

Recruitment was discussed

3. DHS Update (tabled)

4. New Business (none)

5. Old Business (none)

a. Update on April event

Event is Saturday, April 9 and starts at 11:00 at the Woodbury Library. It will run until noon. Eleven books will be raffled off at the end of the event to honor the lives of children who were cut short due to child abuse. Dawn from the library will discuss parent kits on various topics such as divorce, bullying, etc. She will also discuss how to get a library card and the six pillars of reading. Author Connie VanHoven will be at the library as well. Michelle made book marks with book recommendations which will be at the event. Marty will take a supply of the book marks down to Valley Book Seller. We will have the PCAMN bracelets and book marks. Yvonne is doing the press release.

b. Volunteers needed for April event-need head count

Don, Rick, Marty, Aine, Melissa, Jan (may be on jury duty or may be at work). We need to clear out by 12:30 because there will be a wedding after our event.

ADJOURN: 6:02 P.M.